RYARSH AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

Tilly

Lion Class

When considering our choice for this term's Excellence Award, the decision was unanimous – we all instantly agreed that Tilly was the perfect choice. Our class is full of wonderful individuals who embody our school values and Tilly is an extra-special example of that.

Everyone at Ryarsh shows independence and Tilly is a fantastically independent learner. She knows how to help herself and understands that there are always things we can do to improve our learning. She takes feedback as a positive step for making things even better. This means her learning is going from strength to strength!

Everyone at Ryarsh shows good manners and Tilly's manners are impeccable. She is polite and thoughtful in the way she speaks to others and is an extremely kind and caring person. Adults around school are always impressed with Tilly's lovely manners and she is one of the most kind and caring children we have ever met.

Everyone at Ryarsh shows respect for other people and develops good relationships. Again this is an accurate description of the thoughtful friend that Tilly is as well as a wonderful, helpful class member. Tilly is always offering to hand things out or collect things in, we'd be lost without her! We're sure her classmates would agree that she is a super person to have around.

Everyone at Ryarsh takes responsibility for their learning and shows pride. Tilly has worked incredibly hard during her time in Year 3 and we are seeing some lovely learning. She has a mature attitude to everything that goes on in school and should be justly proud of her selection for this award as well as her great progress.

Everyone at Ryarsh has a positive attitude. We've left this until last as it is one of the most fabulous things about Tilly – everything we do in school is greeted with a smile and an unendingly positive attitude – we've never heard Tilly utter the dreaded words: "I don't get it!" This is exactly why Tilly is an extra-special Lion who is a total pleasure to teach and a super-duper class member.

Congratulations Tilly on being this term's Excellence Award winner – we are very proud of you and we look forward to hearing about ever more fabulous achievements as you move through Ryarsh!
