RYARSH AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

Sam

Seahorse Class

As we come to the end of a super year in Seahorse class it has been a tough choice as to who deserves the last excellence award. All the adults from Seahorse class are so excited and chuffed to bits to be awarding it to Sam and with so many lovely things to say about him, where do we start? Sam has tried extremely hard since being a Seahorse and his improved confidence has had a positive impact on his achievements in all areas.

It is a real delight to have Sam in our class. He always comes in to school with a super smiley face ready to see what the day holds. He demonstrates all of our school values and sets an excellent example to the other Seahorses. Sam is a kind and caring friend who will put others first and is willing to cheer up any Seahorse that appears to need a little TLC from time to time.

Sam's work ethic has made a MASSIVE improvement throughout the year. His ability has always been there, but to begin with he kept it low key, however now he is shining like the brightest star in the sky! Sam has improved with his Maths, his reading and most recently, the biggest improvement to date, his writing. Sam will now write confidently without adult support and the most rewarding thing for us is to see how proud he is of his own achievements. He couldn't wait to share with us his recent Mexican story and we agree Sam, it is your best piece this year and you should be super proud of yourself!

You have been a pleasure to have in Seahorse class this year Sam. Keep doing the fab things you have been doing as we know you are going to make the most Perfect Penguin.
