RYARSH AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

Victor

Penguin Class

The winner of the Term 2 Excellence award was always going to be a tough one, purely because Penguin Class have all worked so incredibly hard. But when Mrs Eames and I were thinking about it, there was one person who stood out, one person who does not go a single day without bringing sunshine and loveliness to our class. This term's winner is somebody whose dedication, commitment and superb attitude towards school life really is outstanding. I must also say what a fantastic cook Victor was in our 'Christmas Recipe' nativity. He learned his lines beautifully and his mature and quirky sense of humour really added a lovely spice to the mix!

Every morning Victor greets us with a lovely smile and does not stop smiling until the end of the day. Victor always puts 100% into all of his learning, and will always embrace a challenge. He is always so keen to develop new skills and learn something new, and this quality has meant he has learned so much already! Even when things are quite tricky, Victor will not give up and thinks very carefully about how to tackle a problem.

Victor takes such pride in his learning too, meaning his work is always so beautifully presented and he goes that little bit further by adding his little Victor touch of beautiful illustrations. There has not been a topic, a lesson or a day which I have not seen Victor flourish and get completely involved in his learning, what an achievement!

Not only is Victor a super learner, he is also so incredibly kind to everyone, is super helpful and we often comment and commend his impeccable manners. Victor can often be found helping out and supporting other Penguins in their learning and takes such good care of his friends. His beautiful manners are never forgotten and something I know he is particularly proud of too. Victor can always be counted on to make the right decisions and is such a sensible and mature Penguin, he is always willing to lend a hand to the adults as well as his friends.

Victor, you have been such a superb Penguin. You really do show your Ryarsh School values every day and you are an absolute pleasure to be around. I know Mrs Eames and I love working with you and you really are a credit to our Ryarsh family.

Wishing you a truly amazing and magical Christmas, you really are our super shiny superstar!
