RYARSH AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

Sarah

Lion Class

Every single Lion has come back to school with a fantastic attitude. So, we have found it extremely difficult to pick just one child who deserves this award. However, we have decided to give this Excellence award to a young girl for being a kind and hard working member of Lion Class. Sarah is a great example of a Ryarsh pupil, showing all school values through her positive attitude towards learning and taking responsibility for her work.

From the moment she walks into class, Sarah has a big smile on her face and is ready to learn. She is a very supportive and caring girl, who is extremely kind to her friends. It has been lovely to see her build strong relationships with her peers during our Forest School sessions.

Sarah has shown great determination to improve the quality of her work, by continuously taking pride in her presentation. Her handwriting has come on leaps and bounds over the last term, which has made her writing even more enjoyable to read. Sarah has worked extremely hard in English and has written some wonderful descriptions of Ryarsh in our persuasive posters.

The Lion Class Team have all commented on how Sarah has blossomed this term. She has been practising her timetables and is making her way up the timestable mountain. It has also been a pleasure to see her grow in confidence with her reading, especially in our Guided Reading lessons. Sarah shows great enthusiasm when sharing her understanding of the story. She is always eager to take part and the class have all loved listening to her read.

Thank you for being such a pleasure to teach and well done for achieving this Excellence award!
